

International Boys' School Coalition Conference on Music

Breaking Gender Stereotypes:

Music and Self-Expression in the Independent Boys' School

Haverford, PA • March 14 – 15, 2008

The I.B.S.C. is pleased to announce the first conference focused on Music Education in the private boys' school setting. Held in Haverford, PA, only minutes from historic Philadelphia, teachers and students will have the opportunity to participate in clinics and performances lead by world-class artists. Students are invited to participate in the following Honor Ensembles with a recommendation from their music director. For full details, refer to the I.B.S.C. Music Conference Honor Ensemble Information and Registration Materials Package available at www.theibsc.org.

Honor Boychoir

Conducted by Fernando Malvar-Ruiz, The American Boychoir School (Princeton, NJ)

Upper School Honor Choir

Conducted by Alan Harlar, Temple University (Philadelphia, PA)

Honor Orchestra

Conducted by Luis Biava, Temple University (Philadelphia, PA)

I.B.S.C. Music Conference Honor Ensemble Information and Registration Materials Package are available at www.theibsc.org. Registration Form and Registration Fee must be postmarked on or before January 11, 2008. If you have any questions, please call Duane Case at 610-642-3020 ext. 1212

