

"Not everything that can be counted counts, and not everything that counts can be counted" Albert Einstein.

The Abundant Herds - Successful management through naming

"Each beast in a herd of Nguni is individual in the combination of its colour pattern, horn shape, gender, status and history. Each occupant of the byre has its story, as does any member of the household, and carries its complex identity in the names and terms that describe its attributes." Marguerite Poland

The Kids Aren't Alright – Fragile lives and shattered dreams

"The Kids are grown up but their lives are worn" The Offspring

How to Save a Life - You can't write a manual

"I would have stayed up with you all night had I known how to save a life" The Fray

Generativity - Creativity in the service of the young

""Good teaching is an act of hospitality toward the young, and hospitality is always an act that benefits the host even more than the guest." Parker J Palmer

Uniqueness - Seeing the individual in every child

"Flowers are red young man, Green leaves are green, There's no need to see flowers any other way than the way they always have been seen." Harry Chapin

Complexification - Venturing inside the hurting teens world

"You have to look beyond the surface behavior and outward appearance with a questioning, inquisitive, from-his-perspective point of view" Arch Hart

Keep Talking - Even if it means learning a new language

"Well I feel like they're talking in a language they don't speak and they're talking it to me"
Coldplay

Get Over Your Self - Everybody else has

'Many people who struggle with chronic failure do so because they think of no one but themselves' John Maxwell

Renaming – supplanting stereotypes

"Your name will no longer be Jacob, but I srael because you have struggled with God and with men and overcome" Genesis

"He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name." Psalm 147