

Working Effectively with Teenage Boys

A Workshop with Celia Lashlie, author of “He’ll Be OK”

Celia Lashlie, best-selling author of He’ll be OK: Growing Gorgeous Boys into Good Men, is New Zealand’s best-known expert on the minds of adolescent boys, and a hard-hitting advocate for social justice there. She has addressed hundreds of professional and audiences in Australia and New Zealand. This extended workshop focuses on front-line counsellors, social workers, administrators and other school staff specifically involved with counselling, support groups and discipline/behaviour management, etc.

Her work provides penetrating insight into the psychology of adolescent boys on such topics as their desire to live in the moment, the power of peer pressure or “horizontal learning”, risk-taking, and the need for boundaries and consequences. Celia will address the effective school, family and counselling approaches that support adolescent boys.

To register for the workshop, go to the website of the International Boys’ Schools Coalition at www.theibsc.org. The registration fee is U.S. $100.00. For information, contact Brad Adams, IBSC Executive Director, at adams@theibcs.org or 416-486-3967.

Tuesday, November 23, 2010
9:00 to 12:00 noon
Upper Canada College
200 Lonsdale Road, Toronto

Register at: www.theibsc.org